

Message from the Presiding Bishop of the Midwest COGOP Region

7-8 Appreciate your pastoral leaders who gave you the Word of God. Take a good look at the way they live, and let their faithfulness instruct you, as well as their truthfulness. There should be a consistency that runs through us all. For Jesus doesn't change—yesterday, today, tomorrow, he's always totally himself.

Hebrews 13:7 The Message (MSG)

October is a very special month in congregations lives, as this is the designated month to honor their Minister/Pastor/Clergy. Scriptures do tell us to “honor those who labor among you”. That should come easy for us, as we are a group of loving believers, Who share one thing in common with those whom we honor, and that is the love for the Father , Son and Holy Spirit!

"The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching" (1 Timothy 5:17).

Pastors please know that we the members of this body in The Midwest Region, love you and are praying for you and Your family.

The Pastoral call is not the easiest call there is, but without a doubt it is one of the most blessed one.

Those of you who have accepted the call are worthy of double honor, and we do honor you.

Someone this month will come up to you and bless you with a testimony of how your ministry has blessed them.

Someone else will come up to you and tell you how your prayers brought healing to their body, their home and their marriage.

Someone during this month will bring you a special love offering, which could consist of your favorite meal or candy, or just a financial love gift.

But whichever may be the case, please receive it with the love this body has for you.

Once again,

Pastors our love to you and your family!

From 2 of us,

Bishop Jesse and Mrs. Isabel Yanez
